

Damos as boas-vindas a duas novas empresas ao Parque: a Alphanumeric e a Orbis Consulting.

Alphanumeric Systems, Inc. designs tailored solutions to help our customers excel in the global marketplace. Headquartered in Raleigh, N.C., USA, we have grown to include facilities in Canada, the United Kingdom, Spain, Poland, and Portugal, providing innovative technology, learning, resource management, and process optimization services to a worldwide customer-base. Our solutions include leveraging the power of learning technology to improve service delivery at the help desk, fitting IT service strategies to varying logistics and locations, providing highly skilled resource teams, and delivering multilingual support 24x7 to propel a range of business activities. This unique approach enables our clients to improve performance, realize cost and service efficiencies, and enhance end-user satisfaction.
